"Prepare the Way of the Lord"

Consecrated

Introducing Our Consecrated 2011 Special Guests:

Corey Russell

Corey Russell has been on the senior leadership team of the International House of Prayer (IHOP-KC) for the last 10 years. He currently serves as director of the Forerunner Program and the Apostolic Prayer and Preaching Program at IHOPU, discipling and training young preachers and leaders. He travels in the USA and internationally preaching/teaching on the themes of knowing God, the power of prayer and the soon return of Jesus Christ. He resides in Kansas City with his wife Dana and their three daughters, Trinity, Mya and Hadassah.

Jaye Thomas

Jaye Thomas has been a primary worship leader in the NightWatch (12am-6am) at the International House of Prayer since 2008. Before moving to Kansas City, he learned how to train and raise up other worship leaders as a Brightleaf Music Scholar at Duke University. Jaye also teaches at IHOPU's Forerunner Music Academy and serves the African American Forerunner Alliance ministry. His desire is to see day and night worship ascend from all across the globe and for the body of Christ to know the fullness of God.

Kris Edler

Kris Edler is serving as the ministry director for Joseph International, a ministry focused on restoring God's vision and purpose for the hours spent outside the church walls. He has written leadership curriculum, taught in high schools across the United States and has worked for 'TheCall' as the director of marketing and mass mobilization. From 2005-10, Kris was on full-time staff at the International House of Prayer in Kansas City. His passion is to see young adults filled with passion for Jesus and a desire to see Him made known in the midst of full-time work and university study.
